DETAILED ACTION

1. Claims 1-32 are pending.

Election/Restrictions

2. Restriction is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 and 372.

This application contains the following inventions or groups of inventions which are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

In accordance with 37 CFR 1.499, applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single invention to which the claims must be restricted.

Group 1, claim(s) 1-6, drawn to a method of determining predisposition to prostate cancer.

Group 2, claim(s) 7-11, drawn to an oligonucleotide and kit.

Group 3, claim(s) 12-16, drawn to a method of treating a subject predisposed to prostate cancer.

Group 4, claim(s) 17-20, drawn to a method of determining sensitivity of a subject to prospective interferon therapy.

Group 5, claim(s) 21-31, drawn to an antibody and kit.

Group 6, claim(s) 32, drawn to a method for determining the predisposition of a subject to prostate cancer comprising determining the presence of an amino acid alteration in an RNASEL polypeptide

3. A national stage application shall relate to one invention only or to a group of inventions so linked as to form a single general inventive concept. Unity of invention is fulfilled only when there is a technical relationship among the inventions involving one or more of the same or corresponding, special technical features which define a contribution over the prior art. If there is no special technical feature, if multiple products, processes of manufacture or uses are claimed, the first invention of the category first mentioned in the claims of the application will be considered as the main invention in the claims, see PCT article 17(3)(a) and 1.476(c), 37 C.F.R. 1.475(d)

The invention listed as Groups 1-6 do not relate to a single inventive concept under PCT Rule 1.31 because, under PCT 13.2 they lack the same or corresponding special technical feature for the following reasons:

The technical feature of claim 1 is determining predisposition of an individual to prostate cancer by the presence of a mutation in a RNASEL gene.

Since, Carpten (Nature Gen, Feb 2002 30:181-184) describes a mutation in the RNASEL gene linked to prostate cancer (Abstract). Thus, Claim 1 lacks the special technical feature.

Thus, the different groups in the present application do not contain a single inventive concept and can be separated accordingly.

SPECIES ELECTION

3. This application contains claims directed to the following patentably distinct species of the claimed invention.

(i). Groups 1-3 are subject to election of at least one of the disclosed species.

Claims 2, 6, 7, 12, are generic to a plurality of disclosed patentably distinct species of nucleic acid alterations, the alterations being (a) a deletion spanning nucleotides 471-474 of SEQ ID NO: 1, (b) a C to T substitution at nucleotide 354 of SEQ ID NO: 1 and (c) a deletion at nucleotide 11338427 of SEQ ID NO: 2.

(ii). Groups, 4 and 6 are subject to election of at least one of the disclosed species.

Claims 2, 6, 7, 12, are generic to a plurality of disclosed patentably distinct species of nucleic acid alterations, the alterations being (a) a deletion spanning nucleotides 471-474 of SEQ ID NO: 1, and (b) a deletion at nucleotide 11338427 of SEQ ID NO: 2.

4. Applicant is advised that a reply to this requirement must include an identification of the species that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention.

5. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).

6. Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the
